PEACE WEBSITE MAKEOVER

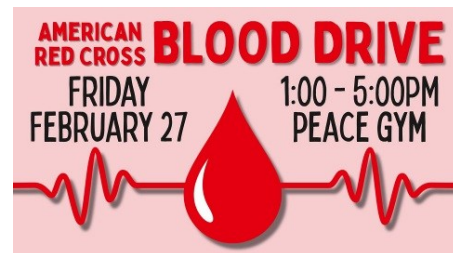

We have recently updated the Peace Lutheran Church website (peacelutheranstl.org) and we invite you to check it out! The functionality is basically the same, but the look is new. The homepage now features ten buttons that take you to the most used features. One new button was added labeled "I'm New Here" and it will be great for people looking for a church home. It features basic information about our service times, what we offer, our New Member classes, and our beliefs on Holy Communion and Baptism. Another new feature, under the "About Us" tab, is a page about our Stained Glass Windows. Each window is pictured, along with a description of what is seen in each window. Under the "Ministries" tab, we have a link to information about our Stephen Ministry program. Under the "Resources" tab, when you click on "Audio & Bulletins", a link to the News and Notes for that weekend is now included alongside the bulletin for the week. This will be helpful for those who were not able to pick up a copy of the News and Notes. All other information from our previous website is still there, just with a new, fresh appearance. We hope you enjoy the changes!

BLOOD DRIVE AT PEACE - FEBRUARY 27

The American Red Cross will be at Peace on Friday, February 27, from 1:00-5:00PM for a winter Blood Drive. To register, please scan this QR code or contact the church office for assistance. Your donation can save a life!

WHY STEPHEN MINISTRY - THE POWER OF LISTENING

In Stephen Ministry, a great deal of time is spent in teaching and practicing listening skills because of its importance as a caregiving tool. Think of a time when you really felt cared for. Chances are someone focused on what you had to say, was attentive to your needs, and listened to how you felt instead of telling you how you should feel or what you should do. Here's a sample of what Stephen Ministers learn in their training about listening:

1. Listening is active. It takes energy and commitment to listen really well. Focus your attention on what the other person has to say instead of thinking of what you'll say next.
2. Listening takes patience. Often you need to build trust before someone will open up to you. Constant, patient listening is key.
3. Listening involves more than just words. Pay attention not only to what is said, but to what is not said—or to what is said with a smile or a sigh. Pay attention to body language, too. Does it agree with or contradict a person's spoken words?
4. Good listeners aren't completely silent. They restate key thoughts or ideas to be sure they understood correctly, and they ask focused questions to encourage the person to reach a little deeper.
5. Listening happens over time. One conversation might build upon an earlier one. As you listen over several conversations, are there any recurring themes or patterns in what the person has said?
6. Listening is confidential. A great way to build trust and show the person you really care is to maintain confidentiality and not to share with others what was told to you in private conversation.

Jesus was the model of a good listener. Remember the stories of the woman at the well, Nicodemus, or the disciples on the road to Emmaus. All were times when Jesus showed his care and concern by first listening to people and then giving them what they needed.

Our Stephen Ministers will learn how to follow Jesus' model as a listener and caregiver. Listening is a great gift we can give to one another, and one we can all use in our everyday caring and relating.

Please join us in prayer for us as we work to gather our Stephen Ministry team: Compassionate Lord, you showed us by example how to love and care for one another. As we begin Stephen Ministry in our congregation, make your caring presence known in our hearts. Help us to hear your call to service and witness. Help us to see ways to use this caregiving ministry to bring your healing love to people within our congregation. Reveal to us your presence as we care and serve. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

We would love to continue talking to you about Stephen Ministry! Reach out to Pastor Brown at pastor.brown@peacelutheranstl.org or Deaconess Intern Abby Reynolds at deaconess@peacelutheranstl.org with any questions.

LIFE MINISTRY – SPEAKING THE TRUTH

Words mean things. The January 1973, Roe v. Wade decision made abortion legal across the country. It marked the beginning of a culture war largely shaped by words. Since 1973, 63.5 million abortions have been recorded. Were they babies or merely clumps of cells? The words matter. Ask the millions of women who have struggled with depression following their abortions.

Redefining terms has been one of the best tools in distorting people's perception of God's truth and pushing our culture ever further from His design. Marriage was redefined to include same-sex couples. Biological sex has been redefined as a gender that can be chosen and changed at will. Living together outside of marriage is now what couples normally do. Euthanasia has been redefined as "death with dignity" and just being compassionate.

Radical feminism redefined the roles of men and women and at one point, declared that there was no difference between the sexes. Young women were told that careers are more fulfilling than marriage and motherhood. Young men have been marginalized as "toxic" and struggle to find purpose and fulfillment in a culture that demeans their roles as fathers and providers. Healthy societies depend upon thriving, functional families, but our culture has done everything to thwart that goal.

Sanctity of Life Sunday brings us back to God's word. Sanctity is the quality of being sacred and deserving respect. Life is the existence that God bestows on us as a precious gift. He brought this world into existence by speaking and created humans as the only creatures with the power to speak. We should not take that gift lightly.

When we decide to violate God's plan for life and families, we find ourselves changing how we speak about these subjects. Our vocabulary distorts and conceals the true nature of what's happening. When we accept these terms as truth, we not only deceive ourselves, but desecrate the sacred. A part of our soul dies as well.

When he stood before Pilate, Jesus said: "For this purpose I was born and this purpose I have come into the world – to bear witness to the truth." Speaking the truth is a divine responsibility and one that requires courage. It comes with consequences: alienation from friends and family, possible legal prosecution or loss of a job or income. Jesus told us that following Him would not always be easy or free of hardship.

Unfortunately, we as Christians have failed to defend the truth in many situations. We want to "be nice" and not make waves and just hope that somehow it all goes away. But it hasn't worked out that way. We are fighting a spiritual war and the other side keeps pushing the boundaries ever further from God's design. Sanctity of Life Sunday is January 25. May it be a time of reflection and rededication to speaking the truth in a world of deceit.

"Through the love of Jesus Christ the Life Ministry Team exists to equip Peace Lutheran Church to sanctify life at all stages"

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Welcome 2026!!!! By the grace and mercy of our beloved, Almighty God, we have been blessed with another year. Let us use this precious time given to us to bring glory and honor to Him.

The 2025 Sunday School Christmas Service was a huge success. A big thank you to all the students who attended and participated in the service and to their parents for helping along the way. Thanks to Pastor Brown, Abby Reynolds and all the wonderful teachers who helped plan and make the service possible.

It is our mission at Peace Lutheran Church Sunday School to teach the children entrusted to us the full counsel of God through Law and Gospel. Saint Paul, through the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, wrote in 2 Timothy 3:16-17, "All scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work."

This month, our Parents and Me class will continue learning about God and His ways. The preschool and kindergarten students will remain within the pages of the New Testament learning about the visit of the Wise Men and the presentation of Jesus at the temple. They will then be introduced to John the Baptist, learn how he prepared the way for Jesus and ultimately baptized Him in the Jordan. The First through Fourth grade students will likewise learn about John the Baptist and his divine purpose to prepare the way for the Savior of the world. They will continue with the baptism of Jesus, His temptation in the wilderness, and close out the month with Jesus calling of Philip and Nathaniel. The Fifth-grade students will remain with a study of the life of Martin Luther and his role in the Reformation of the church.

Please encourage your children to hide God's Word in their hearts through the memorization of scripture. Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter! Isaiah 5:20.

God's continued blessing on you and your loved ones.
